

Mrs Danelle Esterhuizen
Lecturer, mentor, facilitator & coach

Brief profile

Danelle returned to South Africa in 2009 after living and working in the United Kingdom for 10 years. Her passion lies in supporting and developing people at all levels as demonstrated throughout her entire career as teacher, lecturer, mentor, facilitator and coach. Danelle's broad-ranging and multi-disciplinary experience has resulted in excellent advanced coaching and facilitation skills that ensure individuals and teams develop personally and professionally.

As facilitator Danelle has worked across industries and levels, from newly graduated employees to Executive Managers. She is equally comfortable facilitating already existing material as well as designing programmes from scratch. Danelle can speak both English and Afrikaans fluently which stands her in good stead.

As a coach, Danelle works with a broad range of clients, helping them identify needs, set goals and find resolution through a process that is both challenging and supportive.

Disciplines:

Thinking, innovation, applied creative thinking, creative problem solving, design thinking, neuroscience, leadership, coaching, team effectiveness, emotional intelligence, personal effectiveness.

A specialist in the Insights Discovery Personality Profiling tool.

Qualifications

B.A. (Psych & Eng Lit) University of Stellenbosch (1997)

Hons. (Psych) University of Stellenbosch (1998)

British Qualified Teacher Status (through Graduate Training Programme)

Essex Advisory and Inspection Service (2005)

Life Coaching (Distinction), Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM), London, (2008)

Insights Discovery, Global, Accredited Practitioner (2013)

